

SCHOLARSHIP WEBSITES

Achieve Alabama – This is a search engine that was created by the State of Alabama Department of Education to ensure that the local scholarships are in one place. It is relatively new and updated regularly <https://www.alabamaachieves.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/03/Achieve-Alabama-Handout.pdf>

Scholarships.com – This free scholarship search is one of the most established and robust, tracking a reported $19 billion in scholarships. You can search by your employer to see if they offer any scholarships - businesses such as Wal-Mart and Cracker Barrel are on the list. <https://www.scholarships.com>

Scholly – This is an app that matches students with scholarships based on the criteria that you enter about yourself. Cost is $2.99 a month, one of the more expensive ones, but well worth it. <https://myscholly.com>

FASFA – You must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) if you want to apply for federal and state financial aid. Many colleges and universities, especially public institutions, also require the FAFSA. You must submit the FAFSA every year that you want aid.

The FAFSA is available in several formats, including online, PDF and paper versions. The best option is to complete the web-based version of the FAFSA at www.fafsa.ed.gov, known as FAFSA on the Web.

You can start completing the FAFSA in OCTOBER using your parents 2018 taxes. This is a significant change for the better. The sooner you get this done the more money you can potentially get. FASFA OPENS OCTOBER 1, 2021
